Happy Resurrection Sunday!

The resurrection story started with bad news. (John 20:1-2)

- A. Full blown panic came over them. (John 20:1-2)
- B. They began to run toward the last place they left Jesus.

Angels asked two good questions.

- A. Woman, why are you weeping? (Luke 24:1-5)
- B. Why do you look for the living among the dead?

The resurrection story ended with good news. (John 20:16-18)

- A. The good news is that life will never end. (John 3:16)
- B. Delirious gladness of heart. He's back! We will always have Him! (1 Corinthians 15:3-5)

Title: “Betrayal is an Inside Job”

Text: John 13:21-30

Discussion Questions: Why did Jesus treat Judas like any of the other disciples who would not eventually betray Him? Why do you suppose the disciples didn't understand what Jesus was telling Judas to do? Personally, reflect on the forgiveness that Jesus was already offering and the decision to repent or rebel.

April Verse of the Month:

“I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life!”

-1 John 5:13
